INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY PHILOSOPHY

We believe in developing and inspiring technologically literate individuals in order to prepare them for success in a rapidly changing world. Through instruction integrated into core subjects, students develop technology skills as well as the ability to solve problems, take risks, and learn new technologies independently.

Revised October 2010