

World Civilizations II

This course, designed for sophomores, continues a thematic study of critical topics throughout history: the origins of revolutions, comparative economic systems, the emergence of nationalism and the causes, effects of conflict. Particular emphasis is given to the development of analytical skills and communication methodologies.

	1. Social Organization	2. Culture and Heritage	3. Place and Environment	4. Time, Continuity & Change	5. Resources and Economics
Standards	Students will: 1.1 Understand why societies create and adopt systems of governance 1.2 Understand how systems of governance address human needs, rights and responsibilities	Students will: 2.1 Understand how cultural practices vary but reflect similar purposes	Students will: 3.1 Use geographic tools to learn about people and places 3.2 Understand how humans and the environment affect each other	Students will: 4.1 Understand how ideas and actions of the past have an impact on people's lives	Students will: 5.1 Understand fundamental economic principles
World Civilization 2 (Gr. 10)	1.1.1 Understand the components of revolutionary ideas and actions 1.1.2 Understand the short and long term impact of colonization on Africa 1.2.1 Understand the causes of conflict throughout the world. 1.2.2 Understand the relationship between political and economic systems		3.2.1 Understand the components and consequences of historical and current territorial disputes 3.2.2 Understand the costs and benefits of development and its impact on the environment. 3.2.3 Explain the significance of changes in borders.	4.1.1 Understand the causes, short and long term effects of particular revolutions 4.1.2 Understand the long-term impact of technological innovations 4.1.3 Understand the components of revolutionary ideas and actions. 4.1.4 Understand what influence nationalism has had on the following: Historical independence and modern independence movements 4.1.5 Understand the short and long term impact of colonization on nations 4.1.6 Understand the economic, political and human effects from conflict.	5.1.1 Demonstrate basic understanding of global economic systems. 5.1.2 Understand the concept of supply and demand at a basic level. 5.1.3 Define economic characteristics of countries 5.1.4 Determine a country's relative economic status using statistics. 5.1.5 Understand possible causes , effects of poverty and possible solutions for poverty. 5.1.6 Understand the long-term impact of technological innovations 5.1.7 Understand the economic, political and human effects from conflict.